“AWR – Be Prepared”

With just a few months to go until the implementation of the Agency Worker Regulations, time is running out to ensure that you have a strategy in place, which provides you with the reassurance that you are fully compliant with the Regulations, through the provision of a tailored and cost effective solution that meets the ongoing requirements of your business. Concept Staffing have been working for 18 months to prepare for the implementation of the Regulations and have worked closely with a number of the associated representative bodies who have been instrumental in shaping and communicating the Regulations and accompanying guidance. To this effect, Concept is well ahead in both the understanding of the Regulations (implications for both Concept and their clients) and the effectiveness of solutions which they are able to offer.

Andrew Tugwell is the Group Operations Director for the Acorn Group, which Concept Staffing is part of, and has worked in the recruitment industry for 12 years. Over the past 18 months Andrew has spent considerable time working closely with various industry and legal experts and has gained extensive knowledge of the AWR making him well placed to advise all companies on how to be prepared for the implementation in October.

Taunton Women's Aid

Taunton Women's Aid

Taunton Women's Aid provides emergency accommodation, support and resettlement services to women and their children who have experienced domestic abuse. Last year 141 women and children stayed at the refuge, and we continued to support 74 women and children once they had resettled in Taunton Deane.

We provide a range of holistic services, including 1:1 key working; group sessions and activities. We have also developed a programme of workshops for residents called Changing Lives to raise awareness of domestic abuse, and develop skills in assertiveness and boundary setting.

Thousands of women and children have stayed at our refuge over the last 34 years. Here are some of the things they have said:

"I don't know what I would have done without the refuge . . . without it, I would probably be dead by now."

"The Changing Lives programme of workshops really has changed my life."

Taunton Women's Aid rely upon the support of our local community throughout the year in order to continue to provide the necessary support to women and children who have fled domestic abuse. Please see website www.tauntonwomensaid.org.uk for more information, and to find out about the Stay Safe Campaign.

Children's Hospice South West

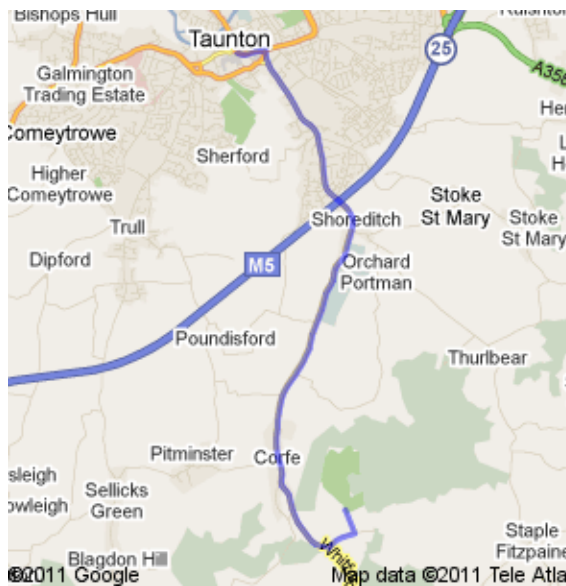

Children's Hospice South West provides care to life-limited children and their families from across the South West; from South Gloucester, Bristol, Somerset, Devon and Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly.

They are the only organisation in the South West to provide vital hospice care to these families. They offer palliative care, emergency care, planned respite and end of life care. But there's more to it than that. They provide a loving and caring place for every member of the family, mums, dads, grandparents and well siblings. A place where everyone can begin to forget their worries for a while, be a family again and find expert help and support in facing an uncertain future. The services are free to the families and they rely on the generosity of supporters to deliver their promise to 'make the most of short and precious lives'.

Children's Hospice South West has two purpose-built hospices in the South West, Little Bridge House in North Devon and Charlton Farm in North Somerset. A third special home from home for life-limited children in Cornwall and Plymouth, is due to open later this year, called Little Harbour.
