Chamber Members and Guests Welcome

Guest Speaker: Mr Geoff Harding, Deputy Agent for Bank of England

The Chamber of Commerce is one again delighted to welcome Geoff Harding as their Guest Speaker.

As we look towards 2012, Geoff Harding, a member of the Bank of England's country wide network of "eyes and ears" will update Chamber members on the Bank's thoughts about the prospects for the next couple of years.

As always, Geoff will be very interested to hear from you about current business conditions as well as answering your questions about the Bank, its activities and policies. The Bank's regional staff are an important channel of information to their colleagues in London and are regularly referred to in the minutes of the Monetary Policy Committee's deliberations.
