RETIREMENT VILLAGES

Blagdon Village

Blagdon Retirement Village has been a part of the Retirement Villages Limited Group for 15 years. Built on the old grounds of a Barnardo's school; the village is home to 107 residents living in 86 properties.

We employ 23 members of staff who help to run the village. Our job is to ensure that our residents enjoy a fulfilling lifestyle. Our residents are instrumental in shaping the community they want to live in and we're on hand to facilitate this.

The Village comprises of 5 blocks which hold several two-bedroom apartments. Also, there are a mixture of two-bedroom cottages and three/four-bedroom chalet bungalows.

Three of the blocks have communal areas on the ground floor this includes the clubhouse, which is the focus point of the village. It houses a restaurant, bar, function room, small shop, library and garden room. In the other two communal areas there is a hair salon, storage lockers, launderette, gym, snooker room and a guest suite.

The outdoor environment consists of a putting green, boules piste and a patio area which is used by residents for social activities.

If you would like to come and have a look around the village, please email me on claircrowther@retirementvillages.co.uk

Hi fellow Taunton Chamber members - I'm Matt Rolfe from the brand-new Axe Shack! I launched the Axe Shack quite simply after realising I could turn a hobby into a business.

I have thrown many sharp items at targets for several years without ever really discussing it with people. The stigma around bladed sports due to inaccurate links with violent crime just made me wary of sharing my hobby of knife and axe throwing. Over the past decade, axe throwing has become a very popular sporting activity in the UK. As a business it largely caters to parties and festivals. Outdoor venues are seasonal and regularly washed out by the weather. I wanted to provide this fun activity all year long, so secured a large venue and set to work with a team to install 8 throwing lanes.

We opened our doors for the first time just a couple of weeks ago and are, to my knowledge, the largest indoor venue in Somerset and I am happy to say we are now open to the public! Christmas parties are looming, we would love to host you.

We are Andy and Denise Spragg, owners of The Sangha House in Tower Street (opposite County Hall). We have been open since November 2016, and we are a health and wellbeing centre. Our offering is based on what we call the Four Quadrants of Holistic Health. This works on the basis that for optimum health, we need to have good physical, mental, social and spiritual (not religious!) health, and that if one suffers, our overall health becomes out of alignment.

We have a full programme of 25 classes per week in disciplines such as yoga, tai chi, pilates, meditation, somatics and exercise, and as well as that, our four treatment rooms contain almost every form of massage known to humankind, together with reflexology, reiki, facials, manicure and pedicure, and advanced footcare.

We recently became accredited as a Trans Aware salon, offering a safe space for those transitioning their gender, and in January 2022 we took on the hair salon on the ground floor, so we now offer support for people from top to toe, inside and out! Guests can either pay as they go or take out monthly or annual memberships, and we also offer packages of treatments for those wanting to optimise their skincare or massage routines. We are fully accredited and licensed with Aveda hair products, Murad skincare and Gelish nail products, and believe we have one of the most comprehensive health and wellbeing offerings in Taunton.

Our main studio can seat up to 50 people for events, and we are licensed to serve alcohol for events. We look forward to meeting you!

Husband and wife team, Rich and Terri took on the historic Bridge House (formally Obridge Farm) during the pandemic with the idea to restore it to its former glory as a family home farm. The heritage of the railways to not only the farm, but also to Taunton and the Southwest became so apparent, hence the birth of Mainline Spirit Co.

After spending 18 months rebuilding an outbuilding into our distillery and experimenting with different flavourings, we decided on a recipe that was made up of hand-picked botanicals from along the railway lines. Western Star gin (named after one of Brunel's first engines to run into Taunton 180 years ago) was born, just 16 days after launching we were awarded our first High Scoring Gold medal from Taste of the West.

There are plenty more variants in the pipeline, including a Navy strength Gin. We can create bespoke flavoured small batches with a white label service for your own brand, wedding or event.

As a registered wholesaler, we can supply on and off trade, farm shops etc. If you would like to stock our products then please do get in contact. We also have a full set up bar available for hire.

Project Lead for the new website and board member Chris Wareing: We've changed so much both on air and off air with Apple FM over the past few years, therefore it was time to show our website some love!

EVEREST BASE CAMP CHALLENGE - 1ST TO 16TH OCTOBER 2022 FUNDRAISING FOR PROMISEWORKS

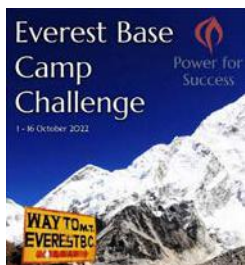

This autumn, Ros Kirk takes on a massive challenge in aid of fellow Taunton Chamber of Commerce members PROMISEworks. Ros is taking part in the Everest Base Camp Challenge - graded as 'challenging to extreme'; trekking 12 consecutive days over rough terrain, exposed to high altitudes every day - this is very much an endurance challenge.

Ros tells us: "The training has been extensive over the next year and despite not having done anything like this before, I'm incredibly excited and proud to support this charity.

PROMISEworks felt like a natural choice due to the nature of their work. Regardless of age, we all sometimes need that mentor or coach to support us when we feel lonely or without hope - just to help us tap back into what is uniquely you. For many of us, we have the luxury of reaching out to friends, colleagues or perhaps choose to pay for that service, however many young and disadvantaged children and young adults don't have this resource and therefore make different decisions that can have a very detrimental effect on their lives.

PROMISEworks recruits, trains and supports volunteers, to provide one-to-one mentoring to improve the mental health and well-being of some of Somerset's most vulnerable young people, aged from 5 to 25. They receive referrals from schools, other professionals, and voluntary groups, and for a variety of reasons: abuse or neglect; mental or physical health problems; families where parental struggles are impacting on well-being. 105 young people currently have a PROMISEworks mentor. However, the COVID crisis has worsened outcomes for many vulnerable families, and they've had to double their normal rate of referrals leaving them with a waiting list of around 200"

Everyone at Taunton Chamber of Commerce wishes Ros well in this massive endeavour - if you are able to support her fundraising in any way however small, please visit <https://www.justgiving.com/fundraising/Rossy-Kirk>

RICHARD HUISH COLLEGE GRADED OFSTED OUTSTANDING AGAIN

Richard Huish College in Taunton is celebrating following a recent Ofsted inspection which has once again rated it with the highest possible inspection grade - 'Outstanding'. It achieved this in all of the four key judgements, recognising a consistently high quality of education and personal development. This third successive top grade places Huish with only a handful of institutions nationally to have been an 'outstanding' provider of education for more than twenty years.

Throughout this period Huish has frequently been praised by inspectors for its commitment to continuous improvement, striving to enhance and maintain excellence as standard and delivering an exceptional experience to all students. This most recent report noted that the college has a vision to provide high quality education for all members of the community, based on a broad and holistic educational offer to its students.

Principal Emma Fielding said: "The college is delighted to receive recognition within the report, which acknowledges a well established culture that is passionately committed to individual success, developing independent learners and which results in tremendous pride among the educational community.

"I could not be prouder of our staff and students at Huish, this is an incredible achievement and testament to their talent, hard work and dedication. I am pleased that the inspection team noted the high quality of teaching, learning, personal development and support at Huish and how far above and beyond staff go to provide an exceptional educational experience.

"I would like to say a huge thank you to all our staff and students for making Huish such a phenomenal place to study. It is a tremendous privilege to be part of such an amazing educational community and to be, once again, acknowledged as one of the best post sixteen providers in the UK."

MEMBERS QUEEN'S COLLEGE FEATURE ON BBC COUNTRYFILE

Over six million viewers tuned in to BBC1's CountryFile on Sunday (24 July) to see what was happening at Taunton Chamber members Queen's College.

Adam Henson, the BBC CountryFile presenter and farmer from the award-winning Cotswold Farm Park showcased the opportunities available to pupils at Queen's College in Taunton to learn about how to grow and rear food. To top it all off, celebrity Chef, Michael Caines MBE who has two Michelin stars, taught pupils how to prepare and cook up the food in the school's kitchen classrooms.

The opportunity arose following a meeting between award winning Head of Food and Nutrition at Queen's College, Joe Mann and his team, and CountryFile presenter Adam Henson at the 2022 "Eat Game" Awards in London.

Mr Mann, who was named 'Best Teacher in England' by the British Nutrition Foundation in their 2020 Education Awards for championing Food and Nutrition told Adam Henson about his field-to-fork approach to teaching at Queen's. He explained how he wanted to get some school pigs to educate his students about where their food comes from, in conjunction with his productive kitchen garden that is already located on the school site. Adam agreed to provide the pigs and to film it as a segment for BBC's CountryFile.

The first segment opened with Adam rounding up two lively 10-week-old Berkshire piglets to sell to Joe Mann, before showing a small group of Queen's students taking delivery at them at their new home in Somerset. The young male pigs, called 'George' and 'Percy' will be looked after over the holidays by two of the Queen's College younger Prep pupils Ben and Isabelle.

Joe Mann said, "There is a lot of disconnect about where food comes from, and my aim is to address this in my role at Queen's College. Students at Queen's already grow their own produce in the school's vegetable garden, but I also want them to understand where meat comes from and how animals are responsibly reared."

The film crew then moved to the school's vegetable garden where pupils were harvesting some home-grown onions and garlic. BBC CountryFile showcased the growing and harvesting of a selection of organic fruit and vegetables that pupils had grown over the year. They then cut to a surprise visit from South West Michelin-starred celebrity chef Michael Caines MBE followed by a VIP Cooking Masterclass.

Michael Caines said, "Congratulations to Joe Mann (Head of Food and Nutrition) and the team at Queen's College and not forgetting the pupils who were amazing. I was pleased to be asked to visit the school and to get involved to help inspire the children. This was a great platform for all the great work done and achieved at Queen's College in food teaching".

MAJOR REFURBISHMENT TRANSFORMS MILSTED LANGDON'S TAUNTON OFFICE BOOSTING GREEN CREDENTIALS

Leading South West chartered accountancy firm Milsted Langdon has completed a major refurbishment of its Taunton office, focusing on sustainability and the benefits of eco-friendly improvements.

The firm's largest office, which is based in Winchester House on Deane Gate Avenue in Blackbrook business park, has undergone significant building work, including a reshaping of the internal structure to create a more modern work environment that allows for further growth, as well as a spacious coffee-shop style lounge area for staff and contemporary client meeting rooms.

The move is part of the firm's ongoing plans for continuous improvement around sustainability and innovation and reflects Milsted Langdon's future ambitions in Taunton.

The firm had already started its journey to a more sustainable future by going paperless across all of its offices, and further eco-improvements as part of the refurbishment include solar panels being installed on the roof, an electric charging point added to the car park and new energy saving lighting and air conditioning system in place.

Chairman Tim Close said: "Completing this project was a huge achievement and we're seeing significant improvements for our staff already.

"Although it meant that the office had to close whilst building work was carried out, it wasn't an issue - the pandemic has illustrated how we can be flexible and work remotely with no impact to client service.

"Our designers worked closely with an internal project team to understand our brand and the way we, as a firm, want to work going forward, and the new office reflects a modern and flexible approach, with innovative and sustainable workplace solutions to help our people thrive".

Milsted Langdon is currently recruiting for a range of roles at their refurbished office in Taunton, as well as their other offices in Bath, Bristol and Yeovil. For more information see www.milstedlangdon.co.uk
